Penelope Fitzgerald A Life Hermione

Penelope Fitzgerald led a mostly quiet life, teaching and then writing - apart from when the barge she was living on sank in the Thames - but Hermione Lee makes the most of her material and has a good attempt at explaining Penelope's appeal. There is possibly rather too much delving into the plots and characters of her books, which is tiresome if you haven't read them as of course synopses and paraphrasing fail to give any flavour of Penelope's writing. However, I changed my mind when such ...
